

DAWSON STUDENT FILMS

October 1, 2007

Dear Parent:

We are pleased to announce that Dawson Student Films will be starting a video and film club for the 2007-2008 school year at Dawson County High School. Dawson Student Films will be producing short films addressing important issues in the high school environment. All film projects will be reviewed and approved by school administration. Deven Mattheus, with Dawson Student Films and Forever Saved Productions will be coordinating and directing this activity. Films completed in the past can be viewed online at the website www.dawsonstudentfilms.com.

The club meetings are being held at Dawson County High School on Mondays from 3:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. Parents will be responsible for arranging transportation home for their student.

Parent permission is required for student participation. Please sign and date below then bring to Deven Mattheus at the scheduled meeting time at DCHS.

For questions, visit the www.dawsonstudentfilms.com website. There, a list of frequently asked questions can be found. Other questions should be directed to Deven at 706-216-7307 or 404-680-7729.

Sincerely,

Deven Mattheus
